

I was very offended by the half-time show at the Superbowl on Feb 1, not only by the Janet Jackson incident, but by the content of Kid Rock's song. I want the FCC to do something to protect viewers from such offensive acts on television.